DETAILED ACTION

Response to Amendment

1. Applicant's amendments, filed 6/15/2007, have been fully considered and reviewed by the examiner. The examiner notes the amendment to claims 14 and 18 and the cancellation of claims 24-32. Claims 14-19 and 23 remain pending in the instant application.

Response to Arguments

2. Applicant's arguments filed 4/26/06 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

The applicant has argued against the EP 403 reference, stating the reference discloses stabilizing the gas mixture ratio before introducing the gas and therefore fails to disclose stabilizing individual flows. The examiner respectfully disagrees. While EP 403 may disclose stabilizing the gas mixture ratio, such a disclosure suggests that the gases are individually stabilized. To stabilize the ratio of the gases in a mixture, each of the gases in the mixture must each individually be stable. If one of the gases in a mixture is not stable then the entire mixture will not be stable. Therefore by stabilizing a gas comprising all the components, then each gas is individually stabilized. At the very least, to stabilize the ratio of a mixture, it would have been obvious to one of skilled in the art to stabilize each gas flow individually prior to mixing to achieve the desired result of stabilizing the ratio of the gases. Accordingly, the examiner is maintaining the rejection of claims 14-17 below.

All other arguments are directed to newly added limitations that were not present at the time of the rejection and therefore are address below.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 14-17 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over KR 2001055915 (KR 915) in view of EP 843348 (EP 348) as applied above, and further in view of EP 1139403 (EP 403).

These claims are rejected for the same reasons as set forth in the office action dated 4/24/2007 and for the reasons set forth in the section 2 above, each incorporated by reference in their entirety.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 18, 19 and 23 are allowed.

6. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter: None of the prior art cited or reviewed by the examiner reasonably teaches or suggests alone or in combination annealing the BPSG layer to consume a portion of the nitride layer and selecting the delay of phosphorous delay and the weight percent of the phosphorous in the BPSG depending on the desired consumption of the nitride layer.

Conclusion

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
